

COLONIAL WOODCUTTER

OCTOBER, 2017

President's Angle
Dave Tate

It's already October, and that means that making presents for the holidays should be in full swing. Don't forget those less fortunate who find happiness in receiving one of the toys made by Guild members. Our toy making efforts grow every year. If you want to contribute, please contact Andy Borland to see how you can help.

Do you want to win a $500 woodworking school scholarship from the Guild? Then be sure to come to the October and November meetings to be entered into the Education Award raffle. The raffle will take place at the Christmas dinner, but you are eligible to win if you enter at either of the meetings prior to the dinner.

This year's Christmas Dinner is on December 14, and every year we have a special raffle at the dinner. This year's big prize will be a DeWalt 12-inch sliding compound miter saw. This is a nice power tool that would look great in your shop, but you must attend the Christmas Dinner to get your free ticket. Even if you don't win the big prize, everyone usually goes home with a gift made by other members. If you want to contribute a gift or help with the Christmas Dinner in any way, contact Paul Dodson.

Soon after the Christmas Dinner comes the Woodworking Show. The Baltimore show is always the first show of the year and occurs during the first weekend in January. We will again have a booth with our handiwork on display. Please volunteer to help man the booth or provide items to display at the booth. This is our premier event for reaching out to the public, so let's put enough effort into it to get really noticed!

Dave

AWG Guild meeting is October 12, 7 PM

EXPERIENCED SAWDUST

By Andy Borland

Q. TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF: HOMETOWN, BACKGROUND, EDUCATION, PROFESSION, AND OTHER INTERESTS.

I was born in Hyattsville, Md. I grew up in Scaggsville, and graduated from Atholton High School in 1975. I worked 20 years for a microfilm company and 14 years in the real estate business. Both professions were in Laurel. I am very happy being the Office Manager for a very large commercial HVAC company in Beltsville. My other interests are volunteering at my American Legion, playing the guitar with my family, writing songs, raising money for the SPCA, and my biggest passion is pitching horseshoes.

VICKI KUNDE

Horseshoe accomplishments in 7 years included MD State Champion 5 times, MD State Doubles Champion 4 times and finished 6th place in Women's A Class in the 2012 World Tournament in Knoxville, Tennessee. I got to sit next to one of the BIG trophies. My goal is to bring one of them home.

Q. HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN INTERESTED IN WOODWORKING?

My first experience with woodworking was around 1974, when I spent a summer in Tennessee at a small, family-owned woodworking business. I learned about the drill press, a couple of different sanding machines, and the band saw.

Q. WHAT ARE YOUR FAVORITE WOODWORKING PROJECTS?

My favorite projects are the squirrel and chipmunk scroll saw patterns in the leaf frames. I bought one of Tom Lahdelma's old scroll saws and I must have broken 20 blades but kept at it until they were finished. Since 2002, I have made a Christmas tree ornament for every tree in my family and have displayed them at several wood shows at Timonium and the 2013 AWG Christmas party.

Q. HAVE YOU RECEIVED AWARDS OR RECOGNITIONS FOR ANY OF YOUR WOODWORKING PROJECTS, AND IF SO, WHAT WHERE THEY FOR AND BY WHOM?

At the 2005 Christmas party, I was honored to receive a Certificate of Appreciation for my "willingness to pitch in and help whenever a job needs to be done." Those jobs included the Hammond Harwood House Gate project, chairing the painting team for our library cabinets at our old meeting place, and taking over the toy program. My knees were shaking so bad I couldn't wait to get back to my wine.

Q. WHAT OR WHO HAS INFLUENCED YOUR WOODWORKING INTEREST?

Mike Arndt, Tom Lahdelma, Jack Hirrlinger, Bob Ashby, Pat Applegate and Andy Borland are the Super Six guys I pick on the most. Why? Because they have more confidence in me than I do, are excellent teachers, and are very patient with rookie woodies like me

Q. WHAT WOODWORKING PUBLICATIONS DO YOU READ, AND WHICH ONE DO YOU REFER TO MOST OFTEN?

My favorite publications are Country Store, Terry's Village and Country Living merchandise magazines. I tear out the pages of items made out of wood and figure out how to make them.

Q. DESCRIBE YOUR WORKSHOP (LOCATION, SIZE, POWER TOOLS, IMPORTANT HAND TOOLS, JIGS COMMONLY USED,) AND IS THERE ANYTHING UNUSUAL ABOUT YOUR SHOP?

My woodshop consists of a several scroll saws, 2 band saws, 3 sanders, 2 table saws, a router, a planer, and a chop saw. Most of them are blue, a couple are grey, and one is red... I think.

Q. WHAT GOT YOU INTERESTED IN WOODWORKING?

I started building and painting decorative birdhouses around 1995, and a friend of mine said he had some scrap wood he'd be happy to give me. That friend was, and still is, Mike Arndt, and a few months later I acquired my first scroll saw, bought some patterns, and started making dust collectors. Not long after that, I went to my first AWG meeting, and have enjoyed woodworking more and more.

Q. WHAT DO I BRING TO THE GUILD?

I hope I repeated it while others are reading this article; laughter, inspiration, and a sense of how rewarding volunteering can be.

Vicki, you did all of that and more.

In Memoriam

I will fondly remember Vicki as an outstanding member of our Guild. Not only was she involved in many of our outreach and community activities, she also led our long-term Christmas workshop for Sarah's House. Further, she was a leader and tireless contributor to the Guild's annual participation in the Woodworking Shows in Timonium.

She will always be remembered for her positive outlook and bright disposition - even when confronted by the serious medical issues she had to deal with.

Vicki was a class act and will surely be missed by all of our Guild members and the many friends that she had.

JIM LUCK

One of the things that impressed me most about Vicki was her enthusiasm for supporting practically all the activities that the Guild participated in. She was very active in the toy making efforts, and worked tirelessly to locate and coordinate with the charitable organizations that benefitted from our toy making. She led the group responsible for the Guild's display booth at the Baltimore Woodworking Show and ensured that we looked our best among the other woodworking groups and vendors. Updating the Guild's brochure was spearheaded by her, so that we showed our latest accomplishments at all the shows we participate in. The Guild is a better organization because of her, and she will be sorely missed.

DAVE TATE

She was the Guild's book Librarian, she was very active Guild member in the yearly woodworking shows in Timonium. For the yearly green expo at Davidsonville Elementary School, she supplied parts for toys for Christmas. She had brochures made up and was going to man an information stand at the wood supplier close to the Bay Bridge. She had a nice wood shop in a building in her backyard where she made her projects. She will be greatly missed for all she did for the Guild.

Scott Ewine lives in Frederick with his wife and three teenaged children, and has been doing woodworking since 2001 after he built a larger house and needed to furnish it. In 2013 he started selling furniture online and at local shows, and eventually started an LLC. Scott mainly makes large tables from slabs that he gets from trees downed by local tree services, which he has sawed and dried. His day job is as a mechanical engineer for ABB Inc., which has taken him to over 50 countries. His other hobbies include travel and Corvette restoration.

White Oak

White Oak, like Red Oak, is perhaps one of the best known hardwoods in the world. It is open grained and the plain sawn is highly figured. The heartwood varies in color from light grayish tan to brown. The sapwood is much lighter in color. Quarter sawn produces straight grain with the “flake” of the medullary ray greatly pronounced.
